

Lacrosse & Other Native American Traditional Games

- See a lacrosse demonstration as a traditional game
- Learn about indigenous games including lacrosse, longball and shinny
- Hear the stories about lacrosse as part of Native American history and culture
- See traditional wooden lacrosse sticks and other equipment
- Play the games and share the traditional culture

Free Program • Hudson Lacrosse Enthusiasts Especially Welcome!

Presented by:
Dan & Susan
Ninham

Founders of the Northern Indigenous Games Day Tour

Dan is a physical education teacher at Bemidji Middle School and Susan is the Administrative Officer at Red Lake Nation Comprehensive Health Services. Dan says the games have a purpose that goes beyond mere entertainment and possess a special significance to indigenous cultures. "The games help build community," he says. "They are played to honor people. They have been used to settle disputes, to train for war and battle and there are so many other areas that the games, I mentioned the games of life, and we're continuing that game."

Program
Compliments of

NATOW

Native American Tourism Of Wisconsin

Native American Celebration on Saturday, July 21 • 10 am until 4:15 p.m. at Lakefront Park Bandshell in downtown Hudson

Other events: Ojibwe flutist and storyteller, Oneida Youth Smoke Dancers, Native singing and dancing by St. Croix Indians of Wisconsin, Native made arts and crafts, cultural and informational booths and displays.

For complete RiverFest details, visit: www.stcroixriverfest.org